NSDAR offers 26 scholarships (some are for more than one student) for graduation high school seniors, College and graduate students in specific areas of study.

The DAR Scholarship Committee awards scholarships to qualified applicants regardless of race, religion, or sex. All applicants must be United States citizens. All multi-year scholarships, typically renewable up to four years, must be for consecutive years of attendance at an accredited college or university in the United States. The only exception is the American Indian Scholarship that is available for students pursuing vocational training.

The scholarship application portal is now closed. The portal will reopen for application submissions on November 1, 2022, and close January 31, 2023. Recommended web browsers include Apple Safari, Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox or Microsoft Edge. Avoid using Internet Explorer as it may cause difficulties.

Enclosed in this envelope you will find Instructions, a Checklist, a list of the available scholarships, and the Email address to contact if you have question.

Contact: scholarships@nsdar.org

Each scholarship has different criteria, eligibility requirements and required documentation, therefore applicants need to make sure they are submitting exactly what is asked for.

Documents are accepted only through the online portal. Email will not be accepted. All submitted information must be typed. Showing a picture on any documents submitted will disqualify the application. All pictures must be covered up or blacked-out before submission. No exceptions.

On-line portal: <https://dar.academicworks.com>

After the student has set up their online scholarship profile, individuals and schools can submit confidential information such as official school transcripts or recommendations through the portal.

To continue working on an application click "Save and Keep Editing" at the bottom of the page. Once you have completed your application click "Finish and Continue" at the bottom of the page in order to send the application and documentation direct to the National Headquarters by January 31, 2023. Leave enough time to gather and receive all the needed documents and complete the application. Be careful to use only the letters and symbols allowed when naming the document files to be uploaded as once uploaded a document cannot be altered.
